

List of districts in India

A district (zilā) is an administrative division of an Indian state or territory. In some cases districts are further subdivided into sub-divisions, and in others directly into tehsils or talukas. As of 2020 there are a total of 739 districts,^[1] up from the 640 in the 2011 Census of India and the 593 recorded in the 2001 Census of India.^[2]

District officials include:

- District Magistrate or Deputy Commissioner or District Collector, an officer of the Indian Administrative Service, in charge of administration and revenue collection

- Superintendent of Police or Senior Superintendent of Police or Deputy Commissioner of Police, an officer belonging to the Indian Police Service, responsible for maintaining law and order
- Deputy Conservator of Forests, an officer belonging to the Indian Forest Service, entrusted with the management of the forests, environment and wildlife of the district

Each of these officials is aided by officers from the appropriate branch of the state government.

Most districts have a distinct headquarters; but the districts of Mumbai City, in Maharashtra,^[3] Hyderabad in Telangana and Chennai, in Tamil Nadu, are examples where there is no distinct district headquarters, although there are district collectors.

Naming

The majority of districts are named after their administrative centre. Some are referred to by two names, a traditional one and one that uses the name of the town that is the headquarters. Since most of the districts are named after a town, the word

"district" is appended to distinguish between the town and the district.

Similar names

The names of the 739 districts are mostly unique. However, some districts share the same name with another district:

- Within India 6 district names are similar, representing 12 districts:
 - Aurangabad district, Bihar & Aurangabad district, Maharashtra
 - Balrampur district, Chhattisgarh & Balrampur district, Uttar Pradesh

- Bijapur district, Chhattisgarh & Bijapur district, Karnataka
- Bilaspur district, Chhattisgarh & Bilaspur district, Himachal Pradesh
- Hamirpur district, Himachal Pradesh & Hamirpur district, Uttar Pradesh
- Pratapgarh district, Rajasthan & Pratapgarh district, Uttar Pradesh
- Outside of India, but within South Asia, there are 8 districts:
 - Bhojpur district, Bihar shares a name with Bhojpur District, Nepal
